

QUARTERLY SEMINAR ON USAGE OF E-RESOURCES IN COLLEGE
LIBRARIES

will be held on Saturday 3rd January, 2015

Venue : K. K. Shah Jarodwala Maninagar Science College
Rambaug, Maninagar
Ahmedabad

This Quarterly Seminar on Usage of e-resources in college libraries has been organized jointly by ADINET and K. K. Shah Jarodwala Maninagar Science College, Maninagar.

The objective of this Seminar is to see how the use of e-resources can be enhanced to support education and research in college libraries. It will help the library profession to provide the required information to their users. Libraries and Education are inseparable and indivisible. Librarians do play a crucial role in aiding education.

To meet this objective it is recommended to have three presentations from (i) Users which include Teachers and Students, (ii) Principals who provide the management support (iii) College Librarians.

K K Shah Jarodwala Maninagar Science College, Ahmedabad is a reputed institute imparting higher education at under graduate (B.Sc.) and post graduate (M.Sc.) levels. Bai Jivkor Lallubhai Trust at J. L. Campus, Rambaug, Maninagar currently runs this college since 1997.

ADINET is a Network of about 2000 Libraries and Information Centers in Gujarat. Its main vision is to join libraries to enable them to harness their limited resources and collective strengths, so that they can continue to play their historic role as society's portal to information.

Library Professionals who wish to attend are requested to register their names before 26th December, 2014 with either ADINET (ADINET (alibnet@gmail.com) ph no. 079 26305630) or with K. K. Shah Jarodwala Maninagar Science College (nandinibpatel@yahoo.com or 079 25461060, 9426587089)
